I can't get no satisfaction! Part 1

I visited a fast food restaurant last week to pick up a quick snack for the kids. I became suspicious regarding the timeliness of my order when the voice over the intercom said; "I want to let you know I am the only one here." It was strange, but I was exercising patience. After 15 minutes and customers driving away upset, I became curious to see what was happening inside. When I finally arrived at the window to pick up my order, it was shocking.

I saw two workers sweating and running back and forth trying to keep up with the demand. They were obviously frustrated, tired and looked like they were about to quit at any minute. I just wanted my fries!

Above them was a sign with the acronym "L.A.S.T."

In order to work there, they needed to Listen, Apologize, Satisfy, and Thank.

It seemed more like a recipe for a healthy marriage, than a work environment. How absurd that their mandate was to satisfy everyone.

Obviously their workers couldn't "LAST" because they had set themselves up for failure. To please or satisfy everyone is impossible. In the end someone would get hurt and the relationship will end with tiredness, bitterness and resentment. The only one who promised to satisfy everyone is Christ. Even then, some people still have a problem with Him.

"Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied."
